Braids

Cut 8 pieces of threads with a length of 7 inches/ 18 cm

Position to attach the threads: Count six stitches from your last stitch of the wig and start on the 6th stitch: This is the position for the right and the left side.

Take two threads and tie them to the wig, then take a piece of pipe cleaner and pull it through the next stitches, then again tie two threads to the wig

Twist each side into a braid. Cut the braid at desired length. Take a thread and knot it around the ends.

Start, 6th stitch from the last stitch of the wig

tie 2 threads

pipe cleaner

tie 2 threads

Finishing

Thread the beads to the arms and legs.

Then, as shown in the picture, sew the legs to the body. Go through the pant leg and sew the right and then the left leg.

Sew the pants to the body and then pull up the shirt from below

Sew the arms to the body

Put on the wig and sew it to the head.

Embroider the mouth, the nose and the eye brows - and your Pippi is finished.

Have fun crocheting!
